

VIDYASAGAR SCHOOL
SUMMER HOLIDAY ASSIGNMENT
CLASS XII
SUBJECT-(ENGLISH CORE)

Theme: “Time, Loss, and the Value of What We Often Ignore”

Monologue Writing

(150-200 words)

1. Imagine you are Franz from The Last Lesson reflecting years later on that final class. Write a monologue.

2. Answer the questions:

i. What lessons do you learn from The Last Lesson and My Mother at Sixty-Six? Explain your views.

ii. Describe the transformation in Franz’s attitude towards school and learning in The Last Lesson. What causes this change?

iii. Symbol

Interpretation

Choose one image from the poem:

Young trees sprinting

Merry children spilling out of homes

Reinterpret it in your own creative way.

iv. Voice of the Mother

Write 5–6 lines from the mother’s perspective:

What might she be thinking or feeling?